Event programme

- Guest speaker Samuel Asare from Nu-Vision will be looking at what is going on in our busy business world today and will focus on how we communicate within our organisations. How do you find time in your busy lives to stop and think quietly and effectively?
- Elsie Fordjour from Style Dilemma will be providing advice on how to dress with confidence and make you feel good. She will be focusing on outfits for both the office and weekend wear.
- Prior to the event, Elsie will hold free private style consultations with two event attendees, and will use the outcome of the consultations as live model case studies.

Italian Crostini will be served on arrival. After the speakers, an English buffet and drinks will be served while you socialise with your fellow professionals.

All guests will receive an attendance certificate with 3 credits towards your CPD
